The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of Catholic, Protestant, and many Orthodox Christian churches.

Christmas
Begins at sundown.
Winter Solstice, celebrating the longest night and the blessings of darkness as well as the rebirth of the sun god.
Tradition: Wicca/Paganism
Mon., Dec. 20, 2021

A feast day that celebrates the belief that Mary, mother of Jesus, gave birth without sin.
Wed., Dec. 8, 2021

Bodhi Day
Period of four weeks in which Christians prepare for Christmas and meditate on the end of all time. In Western tradition, the Buddha's Enlightenment is celebrated during Wesak. The dates and names of Buddhist celebrations vary.

Pax et Lux: A Multifaith Celebration
Thursday, December 9, 8:00 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.

A Student’s Search for Meaning: A Conversation Between College Chaplains, Humanities, Scholars, and Students Across All Campuses
Wednesday, December 15, various times.

The Tufts with Rwanda Fellowship centers around genocide prevention education, restorative justice, and empowering Tufts students to become global ambassadors. The class will explore the root causes of the Rwandan genocide of 1994, its long lasting impacts on Rwanda, and how future generations can apply these lessons.

Application due Sunday, December 12.

We welcome you to join us! Please email program manager WuZee, Shir Appeal, Public Harmony, Ballroom Dance Team, and stories from chaplains and students about their experiences.

Enlightenment Day with the Buddhist Chaplaincy and Tufts Buddhist Mindfulness Sangha
Thursday, December 9, 8:00 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.

A virtual Rest & Recharge workshop. The goal is to provide a space for students to connect and share some of their experiences with the power of rest.
Wednesday, December 15, 12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m. ET, held virtually.

We are especially grateful to our first-ever challenge donor for helping us shine a light on our community and the impact of this office. This Tuesday campaign! We are honored to share that we received 81 donations of $100 each in support of our work.

Celebrating Giving Tuesday 2021

We look forward to seeing you all next week!
