Dear Tufts community,

This week I had the privilege to accompany Tufts Buddhist Mindfulness Sangha on a weekend retreat. In Buddhism, the tradition of meditation retreats dates back to the historical Buddha. In the early days of Buddhism in India, monks would gather inside for the rainy season. During the monsoons, it was better not to go out, since the roads were mudded and so that the tiny plants and creatures, springing up during the rains, might not be injured. The monks used this fruitful time to go within.

Within Japanese Zen, the term used to describe this traditional rainy season retreat is Ango, meaning peaceful dwelling. Dwelling has the connotation of taking root, fully inhabiting this corner of the world where we are, by bringing our full intention and attention to every moment. We turned off our cellphones—and that actually brought us to the better connection we seek—that quality of presence that comes through being fully present and embodied.

Peaceful is the other aspect of Ango. How do we achieve peace as a sangha (spiritual community)? Like Tufts’ Universalist founders, the Buddhist Chaplaincy and Tufts Sangha are nonsectarian and pluralistic, welcoming the deep diversity that exists in the Buddhist path. We do not all agree in belief or practice. Yet we continue to find the unity within our diversity, living the “both/and” paradox of being both individuals that have different understandings and having a shared understanding of our sangha as well. We do so by finding ways to pause, relax and stay open even amidst conversations of difference. As one student said, “By connecting to all of you, I found a deeper connection to myself. And by truly being present to myself, I was able to connect to you.” That is the practice of peace and the path of spiritual retreat.

During these final weeks of the semester, I hope that will take time to experience peaceful dwelling in communities that are most renewing and meaningful for you.

Metta,
Ji Hyang Padma

Special Opportunities
Nominate a graduating senior or young alum for University Chaplaincy Awards Night

Nominations due by 11:59 p.m. on Monday, April 22

This year, the University Chaplaincy hosts its third annual celebration to honor and uplift the wonderful contributions of our seniors and young alumni across all of our religious and philosophical communities. Our Senior & Young Alumni Awards provide an opportunity for our community to nominate and celebrate our graduating seniors and recent alumni, and the awards are themed according to our core mission commitments: pastoral/spiritual care; supporting religious, spiritual, and philosophical communities; education on spiritual and ethical issues; and multifaith engagement. The Young Alumni award is for a recent graduate (2019-2023) who has provided leadership for current students and the University Chaplaincy through offering support, encouragement, guidance and engagement. A committee composed of chaplains and students will select the winners.

We encourage you to nominate a graduating student or young alum through the form below. You are welcome to submit more than one nomination, as well as nominate yourself. You can nominate anonymously or share your name and email. Sharing your information ensures that you will be notified of the final awards decisions and Senior Award Celebration. All nominees will be honored at our celebration, featuring delicious food and mocktails, at the Interfaith Center on Wednesday, May 1, from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Please reach out to University Chaplain Elyse Nelson Winger with any questions.

Hiring Interfaith Ambassador for Fall 2024
Apply by Wednesday, April 10

The Interfaith Ambassador Program is a student leadership program for undergraduate students. This team works in collaboration with University Chaplaincy staff, campus student leaders and organizations, and community groups to create more inclusive multifaith spaces on campus. Ambassadors offer opportunities to bring people of diverse backgrounds and beliefs together for reflection, community-building, advocacy, and service. The Ambassador team is supervised by the University Chaplain and receives guidance and support from the whole Chaplaincy team. They also actively partner with student organizations and university offices across campus. Ambassadors work 6 – 8 hours per week. Hours include weekly team meetings and scheduled hours for study, program development, and program leadership. Please email University Chaplain Elyse Nelson Winger with questions and find the position on Handshake below.

Tech Agnostic with Greg Epstein, hosted by the Humanist Community at Tufts
Thursday, April 11, 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m., Interfaith Center

The Humanist Community at Tufts (HCAT) invites you to a special event featuring Greg Epstein, the Humanist Chaplain for Harvard and MIT. Join us to hear about his upcoming book: "Tech Agnostic: How Technology Became the World's Most Powerful Religion, and Why It Desperately Needs a Reformation." Encouraging readers to reassert their common humanity beyond the seductive sheen of "tech," this book argues for tech agnosticism—not worship—as a way of life. Without suggesting we return to a mythical pre-tech past, Epstein shows why we must maintain a freethinking critical perspective toward innovation until it proves itself worthy of our faith or not. For questions, contact HCAT.

Spanish-English Bilingual Catholic Mass

Sunday, April 14, 5 PM
Goddard Chapel
Confesión 4pm en Spanish and English

Our Easter Celebration continues this Third Sunday of Easter! Join the Catholic community for Spanish-English Bilingual Mass, where we embrace the beauty of our global church. Formerly known as "Spanish Mass," this service (the second Sunday of the month) has been shifting and changing to reflect the needs and desires of students. We are delighted to be reframing our gatherings as intentionally bilingual to further express a spirit of hospitality. All are welcome. Please email Catholic Chaplain Lynn Cooper with any questions.
There’s No Time: Let Us Make Sanctuary
Wednesday, April 17, 4:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. ET, Interfaith Center, 58 Winthrop St.

The Unlearning Retreat is a space to let go of what no longer serves us. BIPOC undergraduate and graduate students are invited to engage with the work of Báyò Akómoláfé over dinner. Join for a transformative journey where Dr. Báyò Akómoláfé’s concept of sanctuary beckons. Discover sanctuary not as mere protection, but as a courageous embrace of loss and a celebration of the possibilities within us all.

You can contact Humanist Chaplain Anthony Cruz Pantojas or Hindu Chaplain Preeta Banerjee for more information; please RSVP by April 16.
Who are all the stakeholders in creating Interfaith Sanctuary in Higher Education spaces? What is Sanctuary and how do we recognize it when we enter?

Please join students, scholars, and practitioners as we delve into these questions and more. Featuring Bayo Akomolafe. Cohosted with Journal of Interreligious Studies.

Based on special issue #39 "Beyond Resistance: Building, Making, and Creating Sanctuary" guest-edited by Dr. Preeta M. Banerjee, Dr. Sheron Fraser-Burgess, and Rev. Anya Phillips Thomas.

CONTACT CHAPLAINCY@TUFTS.EDU WITH QUESTIONS RSVP BY WEDNESDAY APRIL 17

Queer Desis: Queer Wedding
Saturday, April 13, 1:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. at Breed Hall (51 Winthrop St)

Join Queer Desis for an afternoon of festivities as we come together to celebrate queer South Asian joy and a marriage for the ages. There will be student vendors, food, performances, dancing, and drama that not even your grandma's serials can predict. The (fake) wedding will be held on Saturday, April 13, from 1-5 PM in Breed Memorial Hall (51 Winthrop). All students are welcome to attend and are encouraged to wear their best and brightest cultural attire. Stay tuned for more updates and reveals as we get closer to the date. Get hyped and we hope to see you all there! Please check @tuftsqueerdesis on Instagram this week for more details!

Upcoming Religious Celebrations and Observances
These events are drawn from the multifaith calendar maintained by the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at Harvard Divinity School. To see more upcoming religious holidays and festivals, please follow the link to the Harvard Divinity School calendar.

Great Lent
Mon., Mar. 18 – Sat., May 4, 2024
Tradition: Christianity-Orthodox
In Orthodox churches, the first day of Lent marks the beginning of the Great Fast, the final six weeks of a 10-week period leading up to Holy Week and Easter (Pascha). In the churches that follow the Gregorian calendar, Lent is a six-week observance (40 days excluding Sundays) beginning with Ash Wednesday and culminating in Holy Week. It is a time of repentance and sacrifice in preparation for Easter.

Eid al-Fitr (‘Id al-Fitr)
Tue., Apr. 9 – Fri., Apr. 12, 2024
Tradition: Islam
Also known as the Festival of the Breaking of the Fast. One of the two main Islamic festivals (the other is Eid al-Adha), this day celebrates the end of Ramadan, the month of fasting. It comes on the first day of the next lunar month, Shawal.

Vaisakhi
Sat., Apr. 13, 2024
Tradition: Sikhism
Occurs on the first day of the solar year. It is primarily an agricultural festival, celebrating the harvest, and is especially important in North India. It is named after the month Vaisakh. For Sikhs, it is also the anniversary of the creation of the Khalsa (the "Brotherhood of the Pure") in 1699 by Guru Gobind Singh.

Vaisakhi (Baisakhi)
Sat., Apr. 13, 2024
Tradition: Hinduism
Occurs on the first day of the solar year. It is primarily an agricultural festival, celebrating the harvest, and is especially important in North India. It is named after the month Vaisakh. For Sikhs, it is also the anniversary of the creation of the Khalsa (the "Brotherhood of the Pure") in 1699 by Guru Gobind Singh.

Ramanavami
Tue., Apr. 16, 2024
Tradition: Hinduism
Celebrates the birthday of Rama, the seventh incarnation of the God Vishnu. The Ramayana, one of the Hindu epics that tells the story of Rama, is read during the previous eight days.

Ridvan
Fri., Apr. 19 – Tue., Apr. 30, 2024
Tradition: Baha’i
Commemorates the 12 days that Baha’u’llah spent in the Garden of Ridvan in the last days of his exile in Baghdad, during which time he proclaimed himself as the one announced by Bab. Work is suspended for the first, ninth, and twelfth days.

Mahavir Jayanti
Sun., Apr. 21, 2024
Tradition: Jainism
Celebrates the birthday of Lord Mahavira. Born with the name Vardhamana in ca. 599 BCE, he was later given the titles of honor, Mahavira ("Great Hero") and Jina ("Conqueror" or "Victor"), a title applied also to the other Tirthankaras.

Passover (Pesach)
Mon., Apr. 22 – Tue., Apr. 30, 2024
Tradition: Judaism
Passover commemorates the deliverance of the Israelites from slavery in Egypt. It is celebrated for eight days with special prayers and symbolic foods at home, starting with the Seder, a ritual meal that re-enacts that ancient deliverance and emphasizes the freedom of the Jews under the guidance of God. The first two and the last two days are holidays.

Palm Sunday
Sun., Apr. 28, 2024
Tradition: Christianity-Orthodox
Celebrates the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, marking the beginning of Holy Week that culminates in Easter or Pascha. In some churches, Palm Sunday is combined with the anticipation of Christ's death and so is also known as "Passion Sunday." Orthodox Christians often observe this Sunday on a date different from the date on which Protestant and Roman Catholics observe it.

Beltane
Tue., Apr. 30, 2024
Tradition: Wicca/Paganism
The final fertility festival, celebrating the Earth's fecundity and anticipating the power of the sun and the Earth in summer.
