Peabody Newsletter JUNE 2021

On the Cover

This beautiful pattern is a closeup view of a Guatemalan huipil design collected by Copeland Marks (1921-1999.) This huipil is used by Curator of Education, Lindsay Randall, to teach computer science students how textiles can be encoded with cultural meaning. Learn more about this lesson by checking out her blog - Decoding a Woven Language.

The end of the school year has been packed with diverse educational endeavors for the staff. You could say it's been an A to Z(ombies) list of educational happenings!
