Dear Colleague,

Jambo from Kenya! Don't worry, this is still our Europe newsletter. But this Canadian Prairie girl is enjoying Kenya's equatorial climate for a few weeks while back home Saskatchewan has already had its first snowfall.

I can hardly believe there are only two months left in 2023 — where has the time gone? If you have clients looking for last-minute New Year's plans then look no further, as we have (limited) space still available for NYE in Iceland.

But enough about 2023. Those of us in the travel biz are already planning for 2024. And our Europe clients are ready to welcome your guests next year.

Have clients interested in cruising Iceland or Greenland next summer? The Early Bird Special at Iceland ProCruises runs through December 31st, so now is the time to book.

What about a summer getaway in Greece or Porto & The North of Portugal? We have you covered there, too!

As always, contact me with any questions or to book a 1:1 conversation. I'll be in Montreal, Toronto, Los Angeles and Dallas before the end of the year, so let me know if you're in any of those cities and would like to meet up (scroll down for exact dates).

Happy-eating-all-your-kids'-leftover-candy-day! Warm regards,

Jenna
