The start of fall can be a time of excitement as the leaves begin to change in color, but also a time to reflect on the past. This month's newsletter looks at three examples of the impact we can make over time – sharing the remnants of a shipwreck from over 100 years ago with Andover students, childhood graffiti from the Peabody's early days, and our most recent Annual Report.

What’s on the Window?
Contributed by Ryan Wheeler
An early 20th century signature can be found scratched into the glass window of Peabody Director, Ryan Wheeler's office. Get to know the name and history behind the signature of our first curator’s youngest son, Singleton Peabody Moorehead. Read on to learn more!

A Wreck Has Been Wrecked
Contributed by Lindsay Randall
We are saddened to hear the unfortunate news that the Ada K. Damon shipwreck site in Ipswich, MA has been damaged by Hurricane Teddy. The wreck has rested on Crane Beach for over 100 years. Read on to explore the history of this shipwreck and its current state.

The Making of the Peabody Annual Report
Contributed by Emma Lavoie
Each fall, the Peabody Annual Report is created to document and reflect on the Peabody’s success and performance from the past fiscal year. Explore our report to learn more about what we accomplished this year and what goals and objectives we have for the future!
