THOUGHTS FROM THE DIRECTOR

In the past year, I have had the opportunity to think about the future of the Center for Criminal Investigations and Network Analysis (CINA) and what it means to secure the homeland in the twenty-first century? During this event, leading experts will provide strategic lessons and crucial recommendations for the future of counterterrorism. The event will feature four keynote speakers and three panel discussions with experts in law enforcement, academia, national security, and homeland security.

CINA Open RFP 20-21

CINA is seeking white papers presenting research ideas intended to advance CINA’s programs or the broader community of criminal investigators and network analysts. White papers will be used to inform and highlight areas of opportunity and research priorities. White paper authors will present their research ideas to CINA stakeholders at the 2020 OpenRFP Summit, and research ideas will be considered for future funding opportunities. The CINA OpenRFP will accept white paper ideas up to June 30, 2021. Learn about the event.

EVENTS

Beyond 9/11: Homeland Security and Transnational/crime Virtual Panel Discussion

Friday, November 6, 2020, 12:00 PM EDT

Join us for this virtual panel discussion, where you will hear from former senior homeland security officials and experts to gain an understanding of the evolving threats and trends in homeland security. Panelists will provide an overview of the threats, trends, and vulnerabilities that face the homeland security community and discuss how to address these threats.

Virtual Event/ Social Policies: What Network Data Tells Us About Gangs

Saturday, November 7, 2020, 12:00 PM – 1:30 PM EDT

This event will feature a presentation by researchers from the Center for Criminal Investigations and Network Analysis (CINA) on the use of network data to understand gang dynamics and social policies. The presentation will provide insights into the ways in which gang networks operate and how social policies can address these challenges.

Meet the team

CINA’s team is committed to advancing research and analysis on a wide range of criminal and national security issues. Meet the team.

Submit your ideas to CINA

If you are interested in submitting an article, photo, video, or story idea to be included in upcoming newsletters, please submit your ideas on our website contact form.

Stay Connected

Follow CINA on LinkedIn, Twitter, and Facebook to stay up-to-date on the latest news and events.

data analytics, AI, and collaboration with law enforcement agencies led to the dismantling of a large international sex trafficking organization. The data walkthrough that describes how data analytics, AI, and collaboration with law enforcement agencies led to the dismantling of a large international sex trafficking organization.

Speakers

Wednesday, October 14, 2020, 12:00pm-1:30pm

Payment Ecosystem

Cybercrime Through the Online Banking Ecosystem's Risk and Compliance Controls by setting up fake online businesses and laundering. The talk highlights how criminal organizations circumvent the payments and Virtual Event/Transaction Laundering and the Facilitation of Virtual Event/Transaction

CINA NETWORK

Meet the Eastern New Mexico University CINA Summer Research Team

Criminology

Louise Shelley

Design

Lilly Richardson

Foreign Relations

Crystal Price

Crina Price

Sebastian Correa

Students

Neil Mosbacher

Chris Price

Criminology

Cecilia Torres

Criminal Justice

Xandra James

A promising alternative to policing high-threat online commercial sex ads through agents of the virtual event/third-party transaction.

Meet the team

CINA’s team is committed to advancing research and analysis on a wide range of criminal and national security issues. Meet the team.

Submit your ideas to CINA

If you are interested in submitting an article, photo, video, or story idea to be included in upcoming newsletters, please submit your ideas on our website contact form.

Stay Connected

Follow CINA on LinkedIn, Twitter, and Facebook to stay up-to-date on the latest news and events.

Meet the Eastern New Mexico University CINA Summer Research Team

The Evolution of Human Trafficking During the COVID-19 Pandemic | Council on Foreign Relations

The Annual Meeting reflected on the last 12 months during which we helped plan and execute the second COE Summit, positioned three research projects for transition, launched a running COE project on cartel smuggling, moved our Distinguished Speaker Series and other events online, produced a truepaper, and provided strategic planning support to the COE director transition and the effects of the pandemic.