THOUGHTS FROM THE DIRECTOR

Jill Jones

On August 20, 2020, I attended CINA’s 2020 Annual Meeting in a new “hybrid” format, and I was impressed by the professionalism, engagement, and information shared during our virtual meeting.

Our annual meeting is one of the most important events of the year for the CINA Network. It is a way to connect with colleagues, share research and ideas, and discuss critical issues in law enforcement.

The Strategic Planning Committee, chaired by Nancy Hirst, presented an exciting vision for the future of CINA. The Committee has developed a strategic plan that will guide our efforts for the next few years. The plan includes a focus on increasing the diversity of our membership and expanding our partnerships.

As director, I am proud of our accomplishments over the past year. We have continued to provide valuable resources and support to our members, and we have expanded our reach through partnerships and collaborations.

Looking forward, I am excited to see what the future holds for CINA. I look forward to working with our members to implement the strategic plan and achieve our goals.

Thank you to all who attended the meeting and contributed to its success. I look forward to seeing you at our next meeting.

Jill Jones
Director
Central Intelligence Agency

NEW RESEARCH

The Evolution of Human Trafficking During the COVID-19 Pandemic

Omar Camarillo
New Mexico University

Wednesday, October 14, 2020, 12:00pm-1:30pm

CINA Open RFP 20-21

CINA is seeking white papers presenting research ideas intended to reduce crime.

Call for Proposals

Visit our website’s Open RFP page for more information. Any time during the RFP open period (June 2020 – June 2021).

Meet the Eastern New Mexico University CINA Summer Research Team

Omar Camarillo, Ph.D., a professor of criminal justice and sociology, and Cecilia Torres, Ph.D., a professor of criminology and criminal justice, discuss human trafficking, including a case study.

New Mexico University explored the connections between Mexican transnational criminal organizations and human trafficking.

Explore the research findings presented by Omar Camarillo and Cecilia Torres at our Virtual Event/ Social Outlaws: What Network Analysis Tells Us About Crime Streets.

EVENTS

September 2020

September 1, 2020, 10:00am-11:00am

Virtual Event/ Social Outlaws: What Network Analysis Tells Us About Crime Streets

On August 4, 2020, we held our CINA Annual Meeting under these “new normal” circumstances - a virtual conference with over 100 attendees from government, industry, and academia, view-ahead video presentations from 15 different research teams complemented with live Q&A sessions for each, an excellent keynote address from William Bryan and updates from the CINA and OUP teams, and a look at the emerging challenge landscape.

September 11, 2020, 12:00pm-1:30pm

Virtual Event/ Beyond 9/11- Homeland Security and Transnational organized crime Virtual Panel Discussions

Virtual Event/Transnational Laundering and the Facilitation of Cybercrime Virtual Panel Discussions

Virtual Event/ Social Outlaws: What Network Analysis Tells Us About Crime Streets

Register today to receive our future emails.

www.cina.gmu.edu