Family & Children's SERVICES

COMMUNITY NEWS

We are excited to release our 2022 Annual Report

In 2022, F&CS ushered in a new century of service in Tulsa. Additionally, it was our first full year operating as a Certified Community Behavioral Health Clinic (CCBHC), a transformative model of care for adults and children facing complex mental health and substance use challenges. READ STORY

Free Narcan and Fentanyl test strips available to the community

Family & Children's Services (F&CS) provided the Naloxone nasal spray, Narcan, to the Tulsa community for free in an effort to counter the effects of opioid use and to provide opioid users a second chance for hope and recovery. READ STORY

F&CS CEO Gail Lapidus named the Pat Potts Visionary Award recipient

The Oklahoma Center for Nonprofits (OKCNP) announced the six honorees for its annual Visions Awards. The awards ceremony and accompanying dinner will be held at the National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum on Giving Tuesday, Nov. 28. READ STORY

Living Arts of Tulsa event examined mental health through art forms

Emily Farmer and Dee Harris of Family & Children's Services attended the Living Arts of Tulsa event "Art & Mental Health," featuring musicians, poets, rappers, and others as they explored mental health and mental illness through their art forms. Resources were provided to attendees. Proceeds from the event supported the mission of F&CS.

The Party's online ticket sales end Thursday night

The last chance to buy online general admission and VIP dance party tickets for The Party: Just Wear White event is 10 p.m. TOMORROW (Thursday, June 1). Prices will increase at the door. See you Friday night at ONEOK Field! BUY YOUR TICKETS NOW

Mental Health Awareness Month resources offered online

Family & Children's Services (F&CS) joined other organizations to raise awareness and reduce the stigma (negative attitudes and misconceptions) that surrounds mental illnesses. This year, our focus was “Mental Health Matters,” and throughout the month, we focused on different topics and resources. READ STORY

IN THE MEDIA

Dr. Lahr discussed Fentanyl Awareness Day

Dr. Stevan Lahr from Family & Children's Services talked to KOTV - News On 6 about Fentanyl Awareness Day. F&CS has launched a program providing FREE Narcan at three community locations. READ STORY

CLICK TO LEARN MORE

myStrength PRESENTED BY Family & Children's SERVICES

FREE COMMUNITY SUBSCRIPTION

FRIENDS of F&CS lunches

DONATE | SERVICES | CAREERS

Family & Children's SERVICES

OKLAHOMA Mental Health & Substance Abuse

Family & Children's Services // 5310 E. 31st St. // Tulsa, OK 74135 // 918.587.9471 // www.fcsok.org //

Share this email:

emma

Manage your preferences | Opt out using TrueRemove™

Got this as a forward? Sign up to receive our future emails.

View this email online.

5310 E. 31st Street
Tulsa, OK | 74135 US

This email was sent to .
To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

Subscribe to our email list.