Do you have a big idea that changes student life?

Join the Oppenheimer Center for Entrepreneurship and Innovation’s Red Bull Basement. This year, the basement is going virtual and is looking for students to present their ideas for a chance to win $1,000! The Red Bull Basement is meant to challenge the status quo by coming up with ideas that can lead to a better student experience. The winners of this year’s Red Bull Basement will receive $1,000 to help implement their ideas.

Workshop: How to Pitch your Idea

Are you implementing a big idea on campus? Come to the Red Bull Basement workshop and bring your idea to life. Along the way, you will learn how to pitch your idea to the judges. The workshop will take place on Friday, October 22nd at 5:30 PM via Zoom. All are welcome to attend and learn how to pitch your idea.

Entrepreneurship and Innovation Society

Are you interested in learning more about entrepreneurship and innovation? The Entrepreneurship and Innovation Society (ENTP) is a student club that aims to help improve entrepreneurial skills, help turn ideas into businesses, and provide opportunities for networking, expert mentoring, and more. We hold weekly skill-building workshops, incubation sessions, and club speaker events. We work closely with the Oppenheimer Center for Entrepreneurship and Innovation plus stories from fellow Foresters. Read more from Marissa Barnette '21 and Adam Hartzler '23.

Are you learning remotely? How has life changed for you? How has your life changed?

First-year students have shared their insights on learning remotely. They love to go there, get a cup of coffee, and do their homework. They have plenty of options for studying off-campus; for example, In neighboring Highwood there is a small coffee shop called Tala Roasters.
