Highlights and Insights

The Entrepreneurship and Innovation Center

We look forward to a productive year ahead. The pandemic has shifted the way we learn, but not our commitment to learning. It is a moment in which we learn, but not our commitment to learning. It is a moment of change, and we can support and encourage ourselves using positive self-talk and seeking out the support we need when we need it.

We know this is a different classroom experience. But we can use it as an opportunity to learn and study in the same environment that we're used to. The pandemic has also led to an increase in the number of students who are learning remotely.

Here are their stories:
