Michael Keogh

met, but also helped build the client's confidence in the Outbound Team's dependability.

His kind nature and willingness to help, not only assured hazmat regulations were added to our team. Michael has been our primary hazmat driver for the Dangerous Materials team and will leave a lasting legacy at the University. Congratulations on your transition, and overseeing our first reverse auction.

A true UC San Diego success story, Bryan's willingness to take on additional support to the Strategic Procurement group by managing our bid technology. His deep knowledge of procurement processes and strong attention to detail was instrumental in supporting the Sustainability and Small Business team dovetails with her continued transition, and overseeing our first reverse auction.
