The Journal's Pick

By Erica Bullock

Summer schedules often demand socializing, volunteering, and working in the heat, but here's a chance to let the evening air settle an overworked mind on a walk across the Little Spokane River. The Inland Northwest Land Conservancy invites guests on an evening hike led by author Jack Nisbet, 5:30-8:30 p.m. at Waikiki Springs, 12354 N. Fairwood Drive. Nisbet will discuss plants, animals, local history, and future conservation potential while taking guests on a three-mile walk. The hike is $15. For more information, go HERE.
