3 Lessons National Parks Can Teach Advisors About Their Own Cognitive Biases

Work-related research Redtail's Director of Training Rick Williamson has done over the past year or so has led him to consider some of the remarkable similarities between the mission of our national parks and the mission of financial advisors. At the same time, he's realized they have to fight against many of the same cognitive biases when trying to fulfil those missions, and he shares his thoughts in a recent piece at Advisor Perspectives.

Pre-Graduation Goal Alignment Would Benefit Financial Planning Students and Professionals

Students hoping to set themselves apart from their peers on a financial services path might be wise to prioritize sitting for the Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) exam pre-graduation, given the results of a recent survey Redtail Technology conducted in conjunction with Brigham Young University - Idaho. Brian McLaughlin, President, CRM at Orion Advisor Technology and Redtail Co-Founder discussed this and more from those survey results in a recent issue of the Journal of Financial Planning.
