Major enhancement to the Orion - Redtail integration

Last month we announced an efficiency-building enhancement to the integration between Redtail CRM and Orion Advisor Technology. If you have the Orion integration enabled within your CRM, Orion Portfolio View is now accessible on your Today page as well as at the client level on individual contact record's Accounts page.

What's new in Integrations?

AllBackoffice is dedicated to helping independent financial advisors, wealth managers, and fintech solution providers regain focus on the areas of business that they do best. They now offer a number of Redtail-specific services as well as serving as a first line of support for Redtail-related questions for those enlisting their services.

Healthpilot offers a platform for attracting and retaining Medicare-eligible clients. Our updated integration offers the ability to send an email referral to your client right from within Redtail. This email will include a link for your client to access the Healthpilot technology to select Medicare coverage.

The Perfect RIA's Toolkit provides advisors with proprietary value adds that Advisors can white label and use during their client meetings. This new integration offers the ability to sync your pertinent Household, Contact, Account, and Beneficiary data from Redtail CRM into the Invictus tool kit to allow easy generation of value adds for clients.
