Conduct

For more detailed information about the conduct process, please check out the conduct process. Encourage your student to:

Remember, it is in the best interest of your student to be an informed, active participant in the conduct process. Whether your student is new or returning to WCU, now is an important time to remind them of the responsibilities off campus. Email mholroyd@wcupa.edu.

Should your student need to navigate the University conduct process during the academic year, visit the Conduct Process page of the Student Conduct website for a full description of the process.

Student Conduct Tips

Student success is about what happens in the classroom, but it's also about what happens when students leave campus. Asking your student to consider the following tips can help them experience a successful year:

- If your student finds that they are needing assistance adjusting or re-adjusting to campus life, this is a good sign that they should schedule an appointment with the Student Health Services Mental Health Center and/or with the Office of Parent and Family Relations.
- Students know their families disapprove of their behavior, they are less likely to engage. Engaging in unhealthy behaviors. You are one of the key influencers in your student's behavior; if your student is engaging in unhealthy behaviors, you should remind them that their roommate does not need to be their best friend and traffic is a normal part of life.

Student Health Services Flu Clinics

Student Health Services is offering flu clinics during the following times:

- October 22
- November 25-26 (no classes)
- December 13-15

On Tuesday, October 1

Housing Search

We know we are just starting the school year; however, if your student is considering living off campus next year it is a good idea to start planning now...

Housing Options

Whether your student is new or returning to WCU, now is an important time to remind them of the responsibilities off campus. Email mholroyd@wcupa.edu.

In October, property owners begin to advertise for the following year.

Lease dates vary from property owner to property owner. Leases typically begin in July and last one year.

Students do not need to be extroverts to connect with their peers at WCU. With nearly 300 student organizations, there is a home for everyone on our campus, no matter their interests or identities.

Checking in about classes (not grades!) can make it easy for students to get involved. Learn more in this month's #FirstFridayVideo, which can be found on the far right side of the student portal.

Student Union to meet property owners and explore the different housing options off campus.

Attend the Off Campus Housing Fair on October 8, 2019 from 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. in Sykes Student Union. You can find free housing guides, view a list of current WCU off-campus properties, or meet property owners to learn more about the different housing options off campus.
