For more detailed information about the conduct process, please check out the Student Conduct Guide. Should your student need to navigate the University conduct process during the academic year, visit the Office of Student Conduct for assistance with the process.

Conduct Process

Conduct processes are designed to address violations of the Code of Conduct and ensure community standards are upheld. Violations can range from minor infractions to serious offenses. It is important to understand the consequences of actions and the steps involved in the conduct process. The Office of Student Conduct is available to provide guidance and support throughout the process.

Student Conduct Tips

- Financial Aid Tips:
  - Financial Aid FAFSA Alert: With the 2020-2021 FAFSA opening on October 1, it's important for students to file early. This allows them to be considered for eligibility for various aid programs and scholarships. Students who file in October may have more time to clear any financial aid alerts that prevent federal aid from being awarded.

- Housing Tips:
  - Places4Students: The Places4Students website is a valuable resource for students searching for housing. It offers a comprehensive directory of off-campus housing options, including apartments, houses, and roommates. Students can easily search for housing based on their preferences, including location, amenities, and price range.

- Other Tips:
  - Off Campus and Commuter Services Planning Tips: If your student is considering living off campus next year, it is a good idea to start planning now. Attend the Off Campus Housing Fair on October 8, 2019, to get information on housing options and connect with landlords. Additionally, the Living Off Campus Certificate Course is offered to help students understand their rights and responsibilities as off-campus residents.

Additional Resources

- Office of Parent and Family Relations:
  - #RamFam Love: This column aims to connect parents and families with information and resources related to student life. It covers topics such as how to discuss healthy decision-making,tips on connecting with new people, and strategies to open up the conversation about how your student is prioritizing their time.

- Career Center Corner:
  - A Message from President Fiorentino: President Fiorentino shares updates and perspectives on the University community, including updates on important dates and deadlines. The December Commencement is scheduled for December 10-14.

- Office of Student Conduct:
  - A Message from the Director of Student Conduct: The Office of Student Conduct provides guidance and support for students facing conduct issues. They encourage open communication and are available to help students understand the implications of their actions and the steps involved in the conduct process.

- Student Health Services:
  - Flu Clinics: Flu Season is a critical time, and Student Health Services offers flu clinics to help keep the campus community healthy.

- WCU Foundation Update:
  - Upcoming Events Fall 2019: The WCU Foundation Update provides information on upcoming events, including the Career Center Corner and the A Message from President Fiorentino.