For more detailed information about the conduct process, please check out the Student Code of Conduct. Encourage your student to:

- Remember, it is in the best interest of your student to be an informed, active participant in the conduct process.
- Ask questions to help them understand the process and their options to resolve their conduct case.
- Participate in scheduled conduct meetings and/or hearings.
- Contact the Office of Student Conduct at 610-436-3511 for assistance with the process.

Sometimes students find their choices put them in conflict with the Student Code of Conduct and/or violations. As a result, they may be faced with the University conduct process. It is important to remember that all students are innocent until proven guilty in conduct cases. Students who apply for financial aid will be considered for ALL WCU scholarships that require the FAFSA. Students will have more time to clear any financial aid alerts that prevent federal aid from being awarded.

Should your student need to navigate the University conduct process during the academic year, visit the Ram Connect website. As always, please reach out with any questions, comments, or concerns at AMcCarthy@wcupa.edu.
