nglccNY Biz Pitch sponsor EY introduced a twist to this year’s competition when the judging panel announced that it decided to hear presentations from four, rather than three, suppliers at the January 2019 Biz Pitch and select two finalists each round to continue to the final pitch event in December. With more opportunity than ever to compete in the final round for prizes, you won’t miss out on the opportunity to compete in next LGBT Biz Pitch competition in April!

NY Considers Inclusive Contracting Bill Introduced to Create LGBTBE Opportunity

New York State Sen. Brad Hoylman has introduced legislation that would promote state contracting opportunities among businesses owned by LGBTQ people, veterans, and people with disabilities. The proposed bill creates a Division of Supplier Diversity within the Office of General Services, which would be responsible for identifying businesses that are majority-owned by LGBTQ people, veterans, and people with disabilities; providing a directory of these companies to officials who purchase goods and services for the state and assisting such businesses in applying for state contracts.

NGLCC and nglccNY have been closely involved in making this bill a reality and we look forward to ushering in a new era of inclusive state contracting within the state of New York!

Credential with Stonewall Community Development Corp.

Providing Support for LGBTQ Seniors

Stonewall Community Development Corporation (SCDC) is spearheading Stonewall Village NYC, a virtual community to support older LGBTQ people in New York City and their allies. The site will list vendors who have earned credentials that qualify them as LGBTQ-friendly, including repair, personal service and health, and mental health providers. By creating a standard of respect from vendors and providing a market incentive to meet that standard, the community is empowering itself and supporting the local LGBTQ economy.
