Alumni Spotlight

After graduation from the University of Portland back in 2015, Matt LaPlante worked as a part-time transcriptionist for the NACS emergency medicine physician group, which included working in the emergency department at all of the Legacy hospitals in Portland. Additionally, Matt worked as a transcriptionist for an otolaryngologist in Lake Oswego in my second year after graduation. During this time he took the MCAT, applied to medical school and was then accepted to Western University of Health Sciences down in Lebanon, OR. Since his graduation, Matt has been so generous with his time and with helping out upcoming pre-medical students. We very much appreciate Matt's support especially the multiple long trips he's made to come back to the bluff to help with pre-med panels, mock-interviews, etc. Matt is currently in his last year of medical school has thrived as a medical student and we wish him all the best with the upcoming residency match and his bright future as a physician.
