WELCOME BACK TROJANS!

Welcome

This summer, our MDES students immersed themselves in intensive language study in the United States and abroad. They gained valuable expertise well beyond the foreign language they studied. Follow us and learn about their experiences in forthcoming newsletters. As the new academic year begins, we invite all students to try exciting and valuable academic endeavors. Our department offers numerous opportunities to enrich the academic experiences of interested students. Please contact the Director of Undergraduate Studies to learn more about our programs (roughi@usc.edu).
