October 2025: Impact Edition

This special edition is packed with updates, progress, and highlights from our work so far this year, showcasing the incredible difference our volunteers and supporters are making in the lives of children in Hall and Dawson counties.

Every Heart, Every Child, Every Hour, Every Mile

Year to date, 92 CASA volunteers have served 360 children, dedicating more than 4,500 hours and traveling over 51,000 miles to advocate for the best interests of children experiencing foster care in Hall and Dawson counties.

Our Mission For Permanency

At the core of CASA's mission is the belief that every child deserves a safe, stable, and permanent home. We are proud to share that 88% of cases closed this year have resulted in permanency, an increase from 80% in 2024.

Each success represents a child finding the security and consistency they need to thrive, and a powerful reminder of why we do this work.

Partners In Purpose

Mar-Jac Poultry

For more than a decade, Mar-Jac Poultry has been a cornerstone of support for Hall-Dawson CASA, helping us seek to ensure that every child experiencing foster care has a dedicated advocate by their side. Their unwavering generosity has fueled our mission, strengthened our programs, and—most importantly—changed the lives of many children.

As a major donor, Mar-Jac’s contributions have helped recruit and train dozens of CASA volunteers, provide vital resources for children navigating the foster care system, and expand our outreach to meet growing community needs. Their partnership reflects a deep commitment not only to corporate responsibility, but to the heart of our mission: providing a consistent volunteer to advocate for a child’s best interest.

“Mar-Jac Poultry believes in investing in the future of our community,” says Joel Williams, Mar-Jac Senior Vice-President of Operations and Hall-Dawson CASA Board Member.

“That starts with supporting the most vulnerable among us—our children.”

We are proud to spotlight Mar-Jac Poultry as a true champion for children. Their dedication to our mission reminds us that when businesses and non-profits unite around a shared purpose, the impact is profound and lasting.

Thank you, Mar-Jac Poultry, for standing with us as we serve our community’s most vulnerable children.

Success Story: A Second Chance at Life

When her children were found home alone in unsafe and unsanitary conditions, a young mother was arrested, and her children were placed in foster care. The home had been marked by instability, domestic violence, and neglect — and the path ahead seemed uncertain.

During her incarceration, her CASA volunteer continued to advocate for the best interests of her children, ensuring their needs were being met. Even while she was separated from them, her CASA's steady presence provided hope and reassurance that reunification could one day be possible.

When the mother was released nearly a year later...
