

New Changes Coming to the UCPath Website

Beginning this Friday, February 2, 2024, the local UCPath website will have a fresh new look! The changes will align the UCPath website with the new UC San Diego branding guidelines and the upcoming launch of the new UCPath CORE Training.

Users can expect to see the following changes on Friday:

Reorganized Content

Pages that contain redundant information have been condensed and streamlined for a better browsing experience throughout the UCPath website.

Quick Links

Our new modules will provide users with easy access to our most utilized resources.

UCPath Help Site for Employees and Managers

Timekeeping Deadline Schedules

A new section of the UCPATH website, the Newsroom, will house content from our UCPATH Biweekly Newsletter, along with an archive of previously sent local communications.

Existing Links

Existing links that users have previously bookmarked will automatically redirect to their new location on the UCPATH website.

New UCPATH Community of Practice

Along with the website changes, a new Microsoft Teams forum, the UCPATH Community of Practice (CoP), will be available for all new and existing transactors to discuss and share their experiences with the UCPATH system. The channel will also be used to share important UCPATH system updates promptly. Join the UCPATH Community of Practice today!
