From the Desk of the President: Student Housing | Women's History Month | New Name for IVC's DSPS Department | Women's Basketball Team Moves On To Regional Final | The IVC Writing Center

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

John C. Hernandez, PhD

Students:

Due to the current housing crisis and factors like the inability of financial aid to meet the full cost of attendance, community college students face increasing pressure to complete degree and certification programs in volatile rental markets defined by inventory shortages and rising rents. California finds itself falling deeper into a housing crisis that disproportionately impacts the state's roughly 1.8 million community college students, who bear one of the worst rental burdens in the country.

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Women's History Month, which begins today, is an annual commemoration of the pivotal role women have played in American history. The national theme this year is "Celebrating Women Who Tell Our Stories." Take a look at what's planned this month at IVC. See Events >>

COLLEGE NEWS AND INFORMATION

IVC Women's Basketball Team Moves On To Regional Final

IVC's women's basketball team's season will continue after a big win on February 25 in the second round of the California Community College Athletic Association SoCal Regional Playoffs. The team had three players named to all-Orange Empire teams earlier this month. Freshman star guards Trasara Alexander and Kennedy Pucci were each selected first team all-conference and standout guard Emily Freeman was picked to the second team. Pucci was also named the defensive player of the year in the conference. The Lasers play Orange Empire rival and No. 1-seed Orange Coast on Saturday, March 4 in a regional final with a trip to the state tournament on the line. Read More »

DSPS Re-Named Disability Support Programs for Students

IVC's DSPS department has a new name, Disability Support Programs for Students. The name change has been in the works since 2017 as discussions throughout the state proposed having a person-first naming convention versus disability focused. In a survey of students in 2017, the college found that the majority of students do not view the terms "disabled" or "disability" negatively and in fact consider it something they proudly identify with.
