

Global & Experiential Education

Welcome from G&EE

Hello – and once again, congratulations on your admission and acceptance to the George Washington University School of Business! My name is Jeff DeLaitsch and I am the Program Associate for International Student Services in the Global and Experiential Education Office at the School of Business.

My team and I have communicated via email with each of you to ensure the issuance and receipt of your I-20. I look forward to meeting you face-to-face, learning about your personal, academic, and professional goals – and helping you make the most out of your time at GW!

Here at the Global and Experiential Education Office, we aim to provide you with visa processing assistance, orientation and social programming, and general support. As a result, you will receive newsletters from our office starting now up to orientation. These newsletters will cover:

Newsletter One (today!): Orientation Dates & Housing

Newsletter Two: Immigration, Arrival & Public Transportation

Newsletter Three: Campus Life & Health

Newsletter Four: Finances

Newsletter Five: Check-in & Adjustment

As always if you have questions or concerns, please direct them to me at sbglobal@gwu.edu.
Best,

Jeff DeLaitsch

Planning for Fall 2021

"At GW, we are spending the summer preparing our campus and operations for a comprehensive, in-person living and learning fall experience for our students, faculty, and staff. This fall, we will be excited to offer a comprehensive on-campus experience for our community. Our residence halls, classrooms, libraries, offices, and other spaces will be safe and ready for our community members to occupy at full capacity. Courses will be in-person in the Fall. Only those limited courses designated for hybrid or online modalities will have a remote component. Students who have questions about course registration should contact their advisors, or contact their school or college Dean's Office for additional guidance."

- Koren A. Bedeau (Senior Associate Provost for Special Projects); Scott Burnote (Vice President, Safety & Facilities); Lynn Goldman (Dean, Milken Institute School of Public Health); M.L. "Cissy" Petty (Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students)

Arriving in the US

We recommend that you arrive in the US as early as possible but no earlier than 30 days prior to your program start date listed on your I-20. Arriving as early as possible will give you time to acclimate to the US and Washington DC and adhere to all CDC and GWU quarantine and vaccination guidelines.

These mandatory orientations will be held virtually and will provide pertinent information for international students relating to immigration and the academic culture at GWSB.

(If your program is not listed below please contact your department regarding any orientations)

PROGRAM ORIENTATIONS

Master of Accountancy | Master of Science in Applied Finance | Master of Science in Business Analytics | Master of Science in Finance | Master of Human Resource Management | Master of Science in Information Systems Technology | Master of Science in Interdisciplinary Business Studies | Master of Science in International

Please contact your specific department for dates and times

Housing

The focus of the Week One newsletter is housing. Graduate students have a number of different options for housing. We encourage you to visit Off-Campus Student Affairs to learn more about off-campus housing options and search tools used to locate potential residencies.

First, we recommend starting your housing search by learning about your new city and virtually exploring the many different neighborhoods. Below you will find information about some of the most popular neighborhoods in D.C., Virginia, and Maryland. The information includes average commute time to GW's Foggy Bottom campus and average rent prices.

- Foggy Bottom
- Dupont Circle
- Georgetown
- Capitol Hill / Eastern Market
- Adams Morgan
- Cleveland Park / Woodley Park
- Arlington, Virginia
- Alexandria, Virginia
- Silver Spring, Maryland

- Bethesda, Maryland

Personal preferences are generally the deciding factors in choosing a home. No matter where you decide to make your home, close to campus or farther from campus, there are tradeoffs. If cost is a key issue, remember that the farther away from the city, the less expensive the housing. If you rely on public transportation, keep in mind that living in the city requires less travel time. We understand finding housing in a new city can be a daunting task. The best advice we can give you? Be patient! New students go through the same process each year at GW and are able to find a place to live. It is exciting to move to a new city, and we hope you will have fun in your search!

Off-Campus Student Affairs

The office devoted to Off-Campus Student Affairs includes additional resources including information about tenant rights, legal issues and signing a lease. Please use the Apartment Search Checklist when searching for a house or apartment to be sure you are aware of all expenses.

Common Apartments & Temporary Housing

Here you can find a link of common apartments compiled based on suggestions from current and former GWSB students. Created by GWSB's International Student Advisory Board, this list provides helpful insight on common housing selections chosen by the international student community.
