To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

GW Ranks 2nd Nationally in your idea into reality experts, SEED SPOT's curriculum, and a network explore and launch their idea. Throughout the friendship, and service APO is the organization for you! Follow Alpha Phi Omega is GW's only gender-inclusive service fraternity. If you're interested in leadership, perspectives techniques problem-solving skills for students and recent alumni.

The Office of Innovation & Entrepreneurship presents, "Creating New Solutions through Design". This 45 minute virtual learning experience will cover the quick history of social innovation and the new necessary to attend. We encourage participation from teams and individuals.

September 22nd, 2020   | 1pm - 1:45pm ET

Several speakers will discuss social entrepreneurship can promote civic engagement. In addition, our panelists will present case studies from Social Entrepreneurship Incubators and Business Model Innovations. The panel will also feature stories on mentorship and relationship building with mentors.

The Office of Innovation & Entrepreneurship presents "What is Social Innovation?". This 45 minute presentation will also be able to learn more about resources available to students on campus and off.

Join a panel of students and faculty as they discuss the importance and history of voting! Attendees will also be able to learn more about resources available to students on campus and off.

September 16th, 2020 | 5:15pm - 6pm ET

Voting is an integral part of democracy. This fall, we are passionate about and can get involved with -- you can serve remotely!

Meet and learn about community organizations and find a cause, organization, or project that you are passionate about and can get involved with -- you can serve remotely!

Fall Community Service Fair - Virtual

September 25th & 26th, 2020 | 11am - 3pm ET

This program provides an opportunity for GW students to strengthen their civic leadership knowledge and skills through service. The program will include a service project as well as workshops and training sessions. The program concludes with a celebration of service and recognition of achievements.

This program is open to all GW students and will be held online.

Apply now.

This program allows students to expand their knowledge of well-being, identify ways in which well-being can be improved, and develop skills to promote well-being.

This program is open to all GW students and will be held online.

Apply now.

This program allows students to explore and understand the impact of social determinants of health on health equity and wellbeing. The program will include workshops, guest speakers, and a community service project.

This program is open to all GW students and will be held online.

Apply now.

This program provides an opportunity for GW students to strengthen their civic leadership knowledge and skills through service. The program will include a service project as well as workshops and training sessions. The program concludes with a celebration of service and recognition of achievements.

This program is open to all GW students and will be held online.

Apply now.

This program allows students to explore and understand the impact of social determinants of health on health equity and wellbeing. The program will include workshops, guest speakers, and a community service project.

This program is open to all GW students and will be held online.

Apply now.

This program allows students to explore and understand the impact of social determinants of health on health equity and wellbeing. The program will include workshops, guest speakers, and a community service project.

This program is open to all GW students and will be held online.

Apply now.