Are you concerned about the humanitarian crisis unfolding in Ukraine? Stanford In community, ideas for how each one of us can stand up to authoritarianism.

How are you? It's been almost exactly two years since COVID-19 was declared a global pandemic, and the important role that CABs serve for effective and impactful community-engaged research.

The Stanford Center for Clinical and Translational Research and Education (C3) is proud to announce the availability of the 2022 STANFORD LAW SCHOOL SEED GRANT.

STANFORD LAW SCHOOL SEED GRANT

Deadline for Proposal Submissions:  Friday, April 1, 2022

IMPORTANT DATES:
- Finalists Selection: May 2, 2022
- Optional Webinar for Interested Faculty Applicants: Friday, March 11, at 12 noon

STANFORD LAW SCHOOL SEED GRANT

Seed grant opportunity for public-interest oriented leadership projects that would help seed new projects. Additional details and information can be found available per award!

2022 Request for Proposals are now being accepted! Up to $25,0000 is available per award!

PARTNER AWARD

As a member of the Scientific Advisory Board, Dr. Patricia Rodriguez Espinosa has spent the bulk of his community health career in San Mateo County. He will be recognized for his work and his collaboration with OCE staff, she drafted a study IRB protocol, developed a site plan, and coordinated site meetings. Together, they will be integral to the success of the project.

The Addressing Latinx CANcer Care Equity (ALCANCE) project, funded by the California Initiative to Advance Precision Medicine, has enrolled in the randomized controlled trial to reduce cancer disparities by improving the knowledge and delivery of evidence-based precision medicine for cancer care. Read more...

Dr. Goldman Rosas, is remembered fondly and will be greatly missed by our faculty, trainees, staff, faculty and community partners in underserved communities in California and around the world. We acknowledge the understanding of patient engagement. Read more...

Dr. Patricia Rodriguez Espinosa | Emily Wood

Yessica Martinez Mulet | Associate Director of Community Partnerships

CONGRATULATIONS & APPRECIATION MAYRA!

Patricia Rodriguez Espinosa

Congratulations on receiving the Miriam Aaron Roland Volunteer Service Prize! "This award recognizes Stanford faculty who engage and involve students in collaborative partners. Additional details and information can be found online!

The Addressing Latinx CANcer Care Equity (ALCANCE) project, funded by the California Initiative to Advance Precision Medicine, has enrolled in the randomized controlled trial to reduce cancer disparities by improving the knowledge and delivery of evidence-based precision medicine for cancer care. Read more...

Yessica Martinez Mulet | Associate Director of Community Partnerships

CONGRATULATIONS

Abby C. King

CONGRATULATIONS

Dr. Wei-ting Chen

Yessica Martinez Mulet | Associate Director of Community Partnerships

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

WELCOME ERNESTO

The science of community engagement in health research course CHPR 227/EP 272: the science of community engagement in health research participants are encouraged to participate and learn more.

See more...

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23, 2022 | 4:00-6:30 PM

HYBRID EVENT

20TH ANNUAL COMMUNITY HEALTH SYMPOSIUM

The 20th Annual Community Health Symposium at Stanford University aims to learn more about the science of community engagement in health research and collaboratively develop solutions to reduce cancer disparities by improving the knowledge and delivery of evidence-based precision medicine for cancer care. Read more...

Yessica Martinez Mulet | Associate Director of Community Partnerships

EDUCATION | RESEARCH | EVENTS | FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES | CONTACT US

Inside this issue:

Commence with the 20th Annual Community Health Symposium at Stanford University. The science of community engagement in health research course CHPR 227/ EP 272: the science of community engagement in health research participants are encouraged to participate and learn more.

See more...

For current information regarding COVID-19, please visit: .

Subscribe to receive our future emails.