Microneedling is a treatment in which tiny needles are used to stimulate the skin to produce collagen and elastin. Skin treated with four microneedling treatments spaced one month apart produced up to a 400% increase in collagen and elastin up to six months after the treatment was complete! The skin's dermis becomes thicker which softens the appearance of fine lines and wrinkles. Microneedling also creates superficial micro-channels which allow topical serums and creams to be absorbed more effectively into the skin.

Prior to the treatment, a topical numbing agent is applied. The treatment takes about 45 minutes to one hour. Immediately after treatment, skin will look pink similar to a light sunburn. Please click here to visit our website for more information.

~Add-on PRP therapy for $300.00~

During a PRP therapy treatment, the patients own platelet-rich plasma is used to stimulate a greater improvement in collagen production.
