

Student Life Weekly

Now is the time to celebrate our fantastic student organizations and leaders at Grand Valley. The Student Life Awards recognize organizations, student leaders, members, and faculty members who have worked hard to positively impact the Grand Valley community. This year has presented us with many challenges, and it's important to celebrate the many student organizations and student leaders who have worked so hard to keep Student Life alive.

Congratulate the Student Life Award winners!

Celebrating Different Cultures at “What in the World?!”

Join Bringing Together the World on April 9 from 7:15-10:30 p.m. in Kirkhof for the “What in the World?!” event. “What in the World?!” is an opportunity for Grand Valley students to showcase the variety of different cultures that make up our community. Free food, interviews, and performances by student organizations will all be a part of the celebration, so you won't want to miss it!

RSVP for “What in the World?!”

Is the Cook Carillon Clock Tower Really Being Torn down? (It's Not)

Rest assured, Lakers. The article we sent out last week about the removal of our beloved clock tower was an April Fool's joke! The Cook Carillon Tower is here to stay.
