NASHMAN CENTER PROGRAMS

Spread Joy with Give-A-Gift!

For 25 years, the GW community has stepped forward to support our neighbors with gifts for the holidays. This year due to COVID-19 restrictions, we are unable to collect and distribute physical gifts, so we are hosting a virtual gift campaign to continue GW’s support for the D.C. community. To learn more about GW's Give-A-Gift program visit our website.

Newman Civic Fellowship

We are seeking nominations for our 2021-2022 Newman Civic Fellow!

The Newman Civic Fellowship is a one-year fellowship that recognizes students who demonstrate a commitment to public service and civic engagement. Newman Civic Fellows are engaged leaders who have demonstrated a commitment to the six pathways of public service and engagement.

Students can self-nominate. Click here for more information and eligibility requirements.

You Voted, What Now?

You Voted, What Now? is a series of sessions centered on actions the GW community can take post-election. Voting is only one form of civic engagement and these sessions will provide guidance and resources on how to get involved in the six pathways of public service and engagement.

Civic Leadership Dialogue: Advocacy Ethics

December 1st - 12pm ET

Advocates and leaders know that leadership and social change require effective advocacy. Does that advocacy come with ethical considerations? Does how you make the case matter as much as the case you’re making? Join Peter Loge for a discussion about what, if any, ethical responsibility you have as a communicator. Peter Loge is an associate professor in the School of Media and Public Affairs, has more than 25 years of experience in politics and strategic communication, and is the founder of the Project on Ethics in Political Communication.

Come as You Are

December 9th - 7:00pm ET

“Come As You Are” is a space designed for GW Black and Brown women to provide community support, reflection, and direction. Virtual sessions will take place once a month with a series of topics including: identity exploration, intersectionality, societal expectations, and more.
