In This Issue

Safe Return to Campus (Important Updated Information)

NAMON SCIENCE COMMUNITY

Sofiball: Amber Antler expresses desire to mentor and inspire students

RESEARCH & DISCOVERY

University’s NCBID and University of Costa Rica develop equine coronavirus equine antibody formulation to prevent SARS-CoV-2 virus and COVID-19 disease. New fall series focuses on the effects of the coronavirus pandemic on science and society.

IN THE NEWS

Feeling student athletes’ pain

Events

CDS Virtual Pandemic MODeling Forum

Governor Ralph Northam to announce the launch of Virginia's New Atlantic Science Center (NASC) at CDS. The event will take place at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, August 26, 2020, at the Field House on the Fairfax Campus in a collaborative effort between the Athletics department and Mason’s Center for Applied Proteomics and Molecular Medicine (CAPMM) and the College of Education and Human Development. It was the sixth event in Mason’s Aspiring Scientists Summer Internship Program (ASSIP), focused on the effects of the coronavirus pandemic on science and society.

Mason Online Pandemic MODeling Forum closes summer series

Forum Speaker Series

CDS Computational Data Science (CDS) Virtual Pandemic MODeling Forum closes summer series

© 2020 George Mason University