The University Chaplaincy is excited to be hiring interns for the 2022-2023 academic year. LGBT Center interns are a critical component of the Center’s ongoing work to support the needs of LGBTQ+ students at Tufts University. They work in collaboration with each other and with the Center staff to develop programs and initiatives that address the unique challenges and opportunities facing LGBTQ+ students.

Thank you to all those who attended the Russell Lecture on “The Power of Love: Storytelling in Activism and Social Justice.” The lecture was held on April 2nd, 2022. The Russell Lecture is an annual event that brings together activists, scholars, and community leaders to explore the role of storytelling in social change. The Russell Lecture is named in honor of Dr. Franklin H. Russell, a pioneer in the field of social work and an advocate for social justice.

Congratulations to our 2022 Wendell Phillips Speaker, Dr. Anthea Butler. The lecture will be dedicated to exploring the connections between spirituality, justice, and activism. Dr. Butler is a professor of sociology and religious studies at the University of Pennsylvania and an award-winning writer and scholar. She is the author of several books, including “The Gospel of What’s Wrong” and “Black God, White Devil.”

The lecture will take place on April 7th, 2022, at 7:00 PM in the Agassiz Theater. Admission is free, but reservations are required. You can register here.
