In the News

- Evacuate your classes, or they’ll be forced to evacuate your classes. (CEN/USM)
- Life and death: The medical implications of climate change. (The Guardian)
- No vax, no class: A novel approach to mitigate COVID-19. (Science Daily)
- How to build a brain: Exploring the neural correlates of creativity. (American Psychological Association)
- The future of space exploration: Lessons from the International Space Station. (NASA)
- The psychology of selfies: Understanding the motivations behind self-portrait photography. (American Psychological Association)
- The impact of social media on mental health: A review of the literature. (Journal of Social and Clinical Psychology)
- Understanding the role of exercise in cognitive function: A meta-analysis. (Journal of Aging and Physical Activity)
- The effects of sleep on brain function and cognitive performance: A longitudinal study. (Journal of Sleep Research)
- The relationship between diet and mental health: A systematic review. (Journal of Nutrition and Mental Health)
- The impact of technology on education: A case study. (Journal of Education and Technology Studies)

Message from the Dean

Commitment to serve is a characteristic of Mason. It is a core value that guides our actions, policies, and programs. At Mason, we are committed to serving our students, faculty, staff, and the community with excellence, integrity, and dedication. We are proud to be a part of a vibrant and dynamic academic community that is committed to making a difference in the world. Together, we can achieve great things. Thank you for your continued support and commitment to Mason.