THOUGHTS FROM THE DIRECTOR

Jeffrey Hardy, Director-General, Transnational Alliance to Combat Illicit Trade

In my role at the Transnational Alliance to Combat Illicit Trade (TACIT), I have had the opportunity to see firsthand the impact that efforts to combat illicit activities can have on communities around the world. I am incredibly grateful for the work that is being done to combat these issues, and I am encouraged by the progress that is being made.

One of the key challenges that we face in our work is the need to ensure that the public is aware of the dangers posed by illicit activities and the importance of taking action to combat them. I believe that this is a responsibility that we all share, and I encourage everyone to do their part in supporting these efforts.

I also believe that it is important for us to continue to work together to develop effective solutions to the challenges that we face. This requires a commitment to collaboration and a willingness to learn from each other, as well as a commitment to doing what is necessary to ensure the safety and security of our communities.

In closing, I want to express my gratitude to everyone who is working to combat illicit activities and to support the efforts of TACIT. I am confident that with continued collaboration and a commitment to doing what is necessary, we can make a real difference in the world.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Hardy
