National Human-Trafficking Awareness Day

Today is National Human-Trafficking Awareness Day, recognized in March. CINA is dedicated to supporting awareness for this important part of our community.

#WearBlueDay

In support of awareness for this important part of our community, we ask you to take photos of yourself, friends, family, and colleagues wearing blue clothing, and encourage you to share those photos on social media with the #WearBlueDay hashtag.

---

Dr. Rebecca Vichman, a former state trooper, lieutenant, and former deputy district attorney, will explore the impact of COVID-19 on the economy, security, and transnational organized crime. Dr. Vichman analyzes the impact of COVID-19 on the economy, security, and transnational organized crime with a focus on how the pandemic has changed the landscape for criminal networks.

March 17 - Cryptocurrencies and Criminal Investigations

Mark B. Tessler, Professor and Chair of the Department of Accounting and Economics, George Mason University, and Michael V. Vickers, President and CEO of VeriSign, Inc., will discuss the role of cryptocurrencies in criminal activities and how law enforcement can use this information to combat crime.

Authorized User or Visitor

April 14 - Fighting Illicit Trade in the Forms of Trademark Counterfeiting and Copyright Piracy

Cynthia L. Cooper, a former prosecutor, will discuss the challenges of combating illegal trade in the forms of trademark counterfeiting and copyright piracy. Dr. Cooper will explore the impact of these crimes on the economy and security, and the strategies law enforcement can use to combat them.

---

March 19: Fighting Illicit Trade in the Forms of Trademark Counterfeiting and Copyright Piracy

Cynthia L. Cooper, a former prosecutor, will discuss the challenges of combating illegal trade in the forms of trademark counterfeiting and copyright piracy. Dr. Cooper will explore the impact of these crimes on the economy and security, and the strategies law enforcement can use to combat them.

Distinguished Speaker Series:

June 10 - Transnational Organized Crime in the Americas

Dr. Celina Realuyo, a distinguished scholar on criminal networks, will present on the impact of COVID-19 on the economy, security, and transnational organized crime. Her presentation will focus on the challenges faced by transnational organized crime networks in this new environment.

---

May 18 - Transnational Criminal Organizations in the Age of the Pandemic

Dr. Rebecca Vichman, a former state trooper, lieutenant, and former deputy district attorney, will explore the impact of COVID-19 on the economy, security, and transnational organized crime with a focus on how the pandemic has changed the landscape for criminal networks.

---

June 14 - Transnational Organized Crime in the Americas

Dr. Celina Realuyo, a distinguished scholar on criminal networks, will present on the impact of COVID-19 on the economy, security, and transnational organized crime. Her presentation will focus on the challenges faced by transnational organized crime networks in this new environment.

---

July 16 - Transnational Criminal Organizations in the Age of the Pandemic

Dr. Rebecca Vichman, a former state trooper, lieutenant, and former deputy district attorney, will explore the impact of COVID-19 on the economy, security, and transnational organized crime with a focus on how the pandemic has changed the landscape for criminal networks.

---

August 13 - Transnational Organized Crime in the Americas

Dr. Celina Realuyo, a distinguished scholar on criminal networks, will present on the impact of COVID-19 on the economy, security, and transnational organized crime. Her presentation will focus on the challenges faced by transnational organized crime networks in this new environment.