January 2021

TOUR OFD FROM THE DIRECTOR

Professor of Practice, William J. Perry Center for Hemispheric Security

CONTENTS OF THIS MONTH'S UPDATE

January 2021

transnational organized crime in the Americas.

Save the date for our upcoming Distinguished Speaker Series on Security and Transnational Organized Crime on January 20, 2021 at 11:00 AM EST. Our featured speaker will be Professor of Practice, William J. Perry Center for Hemispheric Security, Dr. Leopoldo Moreira. Register here.

We can amplify your taking part of this important initiative. Follow us on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram and tag your photos on your own social media feeds, along with the #WearBlueDay challenge.

FEDERAL SCHOLARSHIP THROUGH CINA & DHS COMMUNITY-SURFACEkehr Administration

News

DHS S&T Communicator Receives American Security Today Award

George Mason Institute Professor and former FBI official, Steven Burmeister, discussed Nashville bombing and a possible motive. Stephen Burmeister, a retired supervisory special agent for the FBI, joined CBSN to discuss what investigators have learned about the January 5 explosion in Nashville.

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER SERIES:

March 17: Cryptocurrencies and Criminal Investigations

April 14: Fighting Illicit Trade in the Purses of Trademark Counterfeiting and Copyrighted Piracy

For more information, visit the CINA website for the Homeland Security Enterprise. For more information, visit the CINA website for the Homeland Security Enterprise. For more information, visit the CINA website for the Homeland Security Enterprise.