CINA Network News

Contents of this Month's Update

www.cina.gmu.edu

October 2020

To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

Here is an overview of what we have prepared:

- Did you miss the last Distinguished Speaker Series? Watch speaker Price’s full talk about human trafficking networks.

RESEARCH

- Did you miss the September panel “Beyond 9/11—Homeland Security and Transnational Crime”? Panel discussion.

- Virtual Event: Transaction Laundering and the Facilitation of Cybercrime.
- Virtual Event: Data Tells Us About Gangs
- Session Recap: Finding Trafficking Networks in Online Commercial Sex Ads

NEWS

Distinguished Speaker Series

- Virtual Event: Transaction Laundering and the Facilitation of Cybercrime.
- Session Recap: Finding Trafficking Networks in Online Commercial Sex Ads

Stay Connected

Subscribe to our email list.

THOUGHTS FROM THE DIRECTOR

Dr. Devon Johnson, George Mason University Associate Professor of Criminology, Law and Society along with researchers from Trinity Washington University receive guidance on summer project from FLETC.

You’re invited to submit articles, photos, videos, and story ideas to include in upcoming content! Visit our website’s digital archive.

The CINA center’s metrics for success is the transition of our research into operational impact. Those thoughtful decisions rely on a deep understanding of the DHS problem conceived with a clear purpose and strategic, thoughtful decisions over the first three years of our operation. Those thoughtful decisions rely on a deep understanding of the DHS problem conceived with a clear purpose and strategic, thoughtful decisions over the first three years of our operation.

As we prepare to release our next annual RFP in December 2020, we want to say thank you to all who continue to help us advance our mission. In 2019, CINA received 47 submissions to our annual RFP, and we have received eight community-provided by our advisory board members, and the active participation of the academic research community.

CINA continues to welcome white paper submissions presenting research ideas intended to address questions and challenges that CINA, DHS, and/or its federal partners are currently facing, or are expected to be facing in the near future. As we move towards the 2020-2021 academic year, CINA looks forward to working with researchers and practitioners to evaluate, enhance, and apply the latest cutting-edge research and techniques to real-world problems.

CINA scholars have developed a diverse and comprehensive network of leading experts providing strategic guidance on summer project from FLETC.

Visit our website’s contact form to learn more about the research. Learn how to submit your proposal.

NEWS

- Virtual Event: Transaction Laundering and the Facilitation of Cybercrime.
- Session Recap: Finding Trafficking Networks in Online Commercial Sex Ads

Contact us at

Dr. Devon Johnson

Associate Professor
Criminology, Law and Society
George Mason University
4400 University Drive, MS2A1
Fairfax, Virginia 22030

Email: djohnson@gmu.edu
Website: www.cina.gmu.edu

Learn more about Research

CINA Welcomes: 2021-2022 Open RFP White Paper Submissions

Learn more about our website’s digital archive.

Stay Connected

Subscribe to our email list.

THOUGHTS FROM THE DIRECTOR

Dr. Devon Johnson, George Mason University Associate Professor of Criminology, Law and Society along with researchers from Trinity Washington University receive guidance on summer project from FLETC.