Trinity Washington researchers reveal guidepost on virtual event from PLATC

Virtual Event: Transaction Laundering

Wednesday, October 14, 2020, 12:00pm-1:30pm

Professor in the Department of Criminology, Law and Society along with researchers at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Centers (FLETC) presented the first in a series of virtual events titled "Transaction Laundering," where experts discussed the latest research and trends in the area of financial crimes. The panelists highlighted the importance of understanding the dynamics of high crime areas during the COVID-19 pandemic, the role of virtual events in providing guidance on summer project from FLETC.

---

Session Recap: "Social Outlaws - What Networktell Us About Gangs"

Wednesday, November 11, 2020, 12:00pm-1:30pm

Data Tells Us About Gangs

Virtual Event: Social Outlaws - What Networktell Us About Gangs

Did you miss the September panel "Beyond 9/11-Homeland Security and Transnational Crime" co-sponsored by CINA and NCITE? Re-watch the full panel discussion featuring leading experts providing strategic guidance on key issues facing the Department of Homeland Security.

---

Virtual Event: Transaction Laundering and the Facilitation of Cybercrime

Wednesday, November 11, 2020, 12:00pm-1:30pm

Ecosystem

Did you miss the September panel "Beyond 9/11-Homeland Security and Transnational Crime" co-sponsored by CINA and NCITE? Re-watch the full panel discussion featuring leading experts providing strategic guidance on key issues facing the Department of Homeland Security.

---

Session Recap: "Finding Trafficking Networks in Online Commercial Sex"

Did you miss the September panel "Beyond 9/11-Homeland Security and Transnational Crime" co-sponsored by CINA and NCITE? Re-watch the full panel discussion featuring leading experts providing strategic guidance on key issues facing the Department of Homeland Security.

---

CINA Welcomes 2021-22 Open-RFP White Paper Submissions

CINA invites you to submit articles, photos, videos, and story ideas to include in upcoming newsletters. Submit your ideas on our digital archive. You're invited to submit articles, photos, videos, and story ideas to include in upcoming newsletters. Submit your ideas on our digital archive.

---

Understanding False Confessions and Guilty Pleas of the Mentally Ill

Professor of Criminology, Law and Society at George Mason University, discussed some of the reasons the mentally ill plead guilty to crimes for which they are innocent. In addition, Redlich, a Professor of Criminology, Law and Society at George Mason University, discussed how credit card transactions have increasingly become a conduit for money laundering. The talk was presented as part of the El Paso, Texas conference billed as a virtual Who's Who in the field of homeland security.

---

Guilty Pleas of the Mentally Ill

In her presentation at the El Paso, Texas conference billed as a virtual Who's Who in the field of homeland security, Redlich, a Professor of Criminology, Law and Society at George Mason University, discussed how credit card transactions have increasingly become a conduit for money laundering. The talk was presented as part of the El Paso, Texas conference billed as a virtual Who's Who in the field of homeland security.

---

Learn more about Research

CINA Welcomes 2021-22 Open-RFP White Paper Submissions

CINA invite you to submit articles, photos, videos, and story ideas to include in upcoming newsletters. Submit your ideas on our digital archive.