Contents of this Month’s Update

October 2020

Price’s

Did you miss the last Distinguished Speaker Series? Watch speaker in Online Commercial Sex Ads”

Session Recap: “Finding Trafficking Networks

Ecosystem

Through the Online Payment

Virtual Event: Transaction Laundering

She discussed their stays in jail tended to be longer than that of other people, since few cared some of the reasons the mentally ill plead guilty to crimes for which they are innocent. In addition,

Redlich, a Professor of Criminology, Law and Society at George Mason University, discussed

In her presentation at the El Paso, Texas conference billed as a virtual Who’s Who in the field, research project on the dynamics of high crime areas during the

University

The CINA MSI Summer Research team from

Trinity Washington researchers receive

On Thursday, August 13, 2020, Federal Law Enforcement Training Centers

Distinguished Speaker Series

October 2020 CINA Annual Meeting.

One of the CINA center’s metrics for success is the transition of our research into operational

The Department of Homeland Security’s

CINA Welcomes 2021-21 Open-RFP White Paper Submissions

Did you miss the September panel “Beyond 9/11- Homeland Security and Transnational Crime” co-sponsored by

Listen to the full discussion and Transnational Crime” Panel Discussion

SESSION Recap: "Fighting Trafficking Networks in Online Commercial Sex Ads"