November 2019

The Digital Caribbean VI Symposium

The Digital Caribbean VI Symposium is a biennial gathering of scholars, practitioners, and digital humanities enthusiasts to discuss the latest research, tools, and methodologies in digital humanities. This year, the event will be held at the University of Houston from June 23-26, 2020.

Symposium organizers: Alex Gil, Kaiama L. Glover, Kelly Baker Josephs, L. Daut, Schuyler Esprit, Annette Joseph-Gabriel, Versia Harris, Jessica M. Johnson, Frances Miranda-Hardy, Sound Recording; Jack DeBouter, Music Composer; Evan Almahdy, Modeling; Leo McElroy and Kiwi Sheldon, Simulations; Justin Holmes, Rigging; David Burlington.

Houghton screened Estrellita at the Middlebury Film Festival this past August and most recently, they created the film, which depicts deportation and family separation in Vermont. The film has been considered a project of the Digital Latinx Transnational Digital Media (LLTDM) program, a digital humanities initiative focused on the study of Latinx cultures in the United States and Latin America.

Legal Literacies for Text Data Mining Institute

We are excited to announce the Legal Literacies for Text Data Mining Institute, a two-day workshop aimed at providing legal professionals with the skills and knowledge to work with text data. The workshop will be held at the University of Texas at Austin from November 15-16, 2019.

U.S./Latinx Digital Humanities CFP

The U.S. Hispanic/Latino digital humanities field is at a critical moment, and we seek proposals for projects that explore the intersection of digital humanities and U.S./Latinx cultures. Proposals are due by November 15, 2019.

Related Events

Introduction to Text Mining Workshop

This workshop will introduce participants to the tools and techniques of text mining, with a focus on the Voyant platform. It will take place on November 27, 2019.

Apply for Funding

The Digital Liberal Arts Initiative (DLA) is currently accepting applications for its funding programs. Applications are due by December 20, 2019. See our website for more information on the types of funding we provide.

Project highlights

"Estrellita (Little Star)"

"Estrellita (Little Star)" is a short film created by the Digital Latinx Transnational Digital Media (LLTDM) program, a digital humanities initiative focused on the study of Latinx cultures in the United States and Latin America. The film explores the experiences of immigrants and their families in Vermont.

Gender and Sexuality in Information Studies Colloquium 2020

This colloquium will examine the intersection of gender and sexuality in information studies, with a focus on the role of technologies in shaping these issues.

Fall Events

Let us hear from the DLA about what’s in store for this year and how we can help you.

Upcoming events include:

- Introduction to Text Mining Workshop
- Apply for Funding
- Project highlights
- External Opportunities

If you have any questions about the DLA, please contact us at dla@middlebury.edu.

Visit our website for more information and to sign up for our newsletter.