Early Sites
Contributed by Ryan Wheeler
There is a lot of discourse on the earliest possible human habitation in the Americas. Read on to learn more about the Calico Hill Early Man site and other important (and possibly early) early sites.

A Sweet Find in the Inventory and Rehousing Project
Contributed by Emma Lavoie
A surprising find in the Peabody collection led to this sweet read—and just in time for Valentine’s Day. Learn about our recent work in the Inventory, and Rehousing Project, and how this find led to our uncovering of New England’s rich candy history. Click below to read more!

(ياة) (ياة)
Contributed by Rachel Manning
Working with the Peabody collections is no small task. The process of inventory, cataloguing, rehousing, and preserving the artifacts is never simple and always has its unexpected moments. Learn about some of these challenges here!

Massachusetts Archaeological Society Monthly Meeting
TUESDAY, March 17, 2020
7:00 PM - 9:00 PM
LOCATION: Robert S. Peabody Institute of Archaeology
Monthly meeting of the NE/Gene Winter Chapter of the Massachusetts Archaeological Society. Open and free to the public. Refreshments will be served.

We are delighted to share this month’s newsletter, including the challenges of reading catalog numbers, how chocolate boxes were used to store artifacts, and the Peabody’s connection with the Calico Hill site in California. Enjoy!

READ MORE
READ MORE
READ MORE

UPCOMING EVENTS
EVENT INFO

TRENDING NOW
• Check out this map of North America with the many varieties of moccasins by tribes and their specific regions.
• Check out this article from the Phillipian on the Courant’s launch party held at the Peabody.

SUPPORT THE PEABODY

© 2020 | Whitelist | Web version | Forward | Manage Preferences | Unsubscribe
Subscribe to our email list.