Dear LSU Family,

Move-in 2020 is fast approaching! To ensure a smooth and safe move-in experience, I encourage students to review our "scheduled move-in appointment. Commuter students will need to visit the Tiger Card permit portal will remain open for ordering through the spring 2021 semester.

As we work toward the safe reopening of campus, LSU has also made lasting improvements that will strengthen our campus culture. We all have a role to play in ensuring everyone in our LSU community feels safe and welcome. Our protocols as needed. The unrivaled spirit that makes LSU such a special place has only been strengthened by our unified efforts. I couldn’t be more proud of all of you, and I’m confident we will all do what’s necessary to make a safe return possible.

We want to know what students really think about COVID-19. They speak louder than our words. Please visit the COVID Student Survey: https://lsu.campuspulse.com. We are committed to your health and safety, and your feedback is crucial to our planning. The LSU Fall 2020 Reopening Plan can be found here.

As we look to the future, there’s more work to be done—and we know our actions will speak louder than our words. Please visit the LSU Pledge to Keep LSU Safe to take the pledge.
