Mission for your Health

Friday, November 20, 2020 | 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Health Disparities Multidisciplinary Research Roundtable

Thursday, November 19, 2020 | 4 to 5 p.m.
Mason Science Series: PEREC Protecting the Potomac featuring College of Science alumna Doni Nolan

Photo courtesy of Katie Russell and Jessica Twydell.

Program. The research focuses on river herring, two Kim de Mutsert
Environmental Science and Policy experience conducting undergraduate research in by Katie Russell
anadromous fish migration

Thursday, November 12, 2020

Learn more participants will receive a $50 Visa gift card. For details, email deadline to complete the survey is

Science Cafe
November's Galileo
Is your mind filled with questions about Seshaiyer
Science Cafe

Focus on your horizon

One of my greatest pleasures in life is hiking. I love being on the trail, with the ability to breathe and be

I've thought about this a lot over the past week while we are in a topsy-turvy, disorienting journey. As it and I will often fanatically keep my eye on the horizon, avoiding any conversations or distractions that

I'm completely absorbed in the wonders around me. I love being on track to get to that wonderous place. In

Careers is an important part of the College of Science's mission to prepare students for stable,

Get COVID-19 vaccines at

Mason Chooses Kindness
"Mason Chooses Kindness" kicks off this
The university-wide well-being initiative

"Mason Chooses Kindness" is an initiative to encourage kind actions throughout the Mason

"Mason Chooses Kindness" kicks off this
The university-wide well-being initiative

"Mason Chooses Kindness" is an initiative to encourage kind actions throughout the Mason

I've thought about this a lot over the past week while we are in a topsy-turvy, disorienting journey. As it
and I will often fanatically keep my eye on the horizon, avoiding any conversations or distractions that

I'm completely absorbed in the wonders around me. I love being on track to get to that wonderous place. In

One of my greatest pleasures in life is hiking. I love being on the trail, with the ability to breathe and be

...