Hands-On Workshop: Deep Learning in MATLAB
Thursday, November 19, 2020 | 4 to 5 p.m.

Mason Science Series: PEREC Protecting the Potomac
Friday, November 13, 2020 | 3 to 4 p.m.

ESP Virtual Seminar Series: Sustainable Agriculture Research on Mason's Campus

---

The research focuses on river herring, two species of anadromous fish present in the Potomac River.

Kim de Mutsert

---

Undergraduate researchers are encouraged to participate in an upcoming student survey focused on how COVID-19 has impacted their lives. Faculty are encouraged to share the survey link with their students and remind them that the deadline to complete the survey is Monday, November 16.

Karen Akerlof

---

The university-wide well-being initiative Mason Chooses Kindness continues with the November Science Cafe, which encourages kind words and actions throughout the Mason week, which encourages kind words and actions throughout the Mason week. This month's Science Cafe will feature a series of activities including a Family Science Fest, an online decorating contest, and the return of the annual gift raffle and office prizes.

Karen Akerlof

---

Undergraduate researchers are encouraged to participate in an upcoming student survey focused on how COVID-19 has impacted their lives. Faculty are encouraged to share the survey link with their students and remind them that the deadline to complete the survey is Monday, November 16.

Karen Akerlof

---

One of my greatest pleasures in life is hiking. I love being on the trail, with the ability to breathe and be completely absorbed in the wonders around me. I love being on track to get to that wonderful place. In doing so, my thoughts are always: pick a point on the horizon and keep your eyes on it. It does work, and I will often fanatically keep my eye on the horizon, avoiding any conversations or distractions that might break the connection.

Karen Akerlof

---

The last issue of 2020 will be published Thursday, December 17, and the first newsletter of 2021 will be published Thursday, January 21.