Monday, March 19, 1:00 p.m - Global Tufts Month: Who Gets to Belong in the Just and Sustainable Society?

The Hebrew Program at Tufts presents a talk with one of Israel's most celebrated novelists, Meir Shalev. Shalev is the author of several critically acclaimed novels, including "The Taste of Blood," which explores themes of identity, memory, and belonging.

"This Lenten season, I can see no better reminder of the new life and transformation that awaits. When he taught me this traditional greeting, it moved me deeply. I began to dream: what would it look like to be a church that lived into this new life of transformation?"

Patrick to you. Followed by "God, Mary, Patrick and Brigid to you."

In traditional Irish Gaelic, the common salutation, Dia dhuit (hello) is a call to attention. The phrase means 'God be with you'.

"Beannachtaí na Féile Pádraig oraibh (Blessings to you on this Feast of St. Patrick!)."
