When you go to the gardens, you might look through a window and see the people living in the garden. You might think, "I wish I could go in and hang out." Mindfulness allows you to become that window.

When you go to the gardens, you might look through a window and see the people living in the garden. You might think, "I wish I could go in and hang out." Mindfulness allows you to become that window.

In this difficult time, as we gather to find strength in the love of God made manifest in the Cross of Christ. As a partner in the journey of looking through that window together. And wishing strength to your own oak tree in the world. You’re invited to join in a conversation with Muslim Chaplain Abdul-Malik on Fridays, April 10, 17, and 24, 9:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m. ET.
