

ANP Lighting

The ANP Socket Pendants are decorative lamp holders that feature the simple style of the bare LED or incandescent lamp, for both vintage and modern spaces.

A choice of eight styles offers the right look for your project!

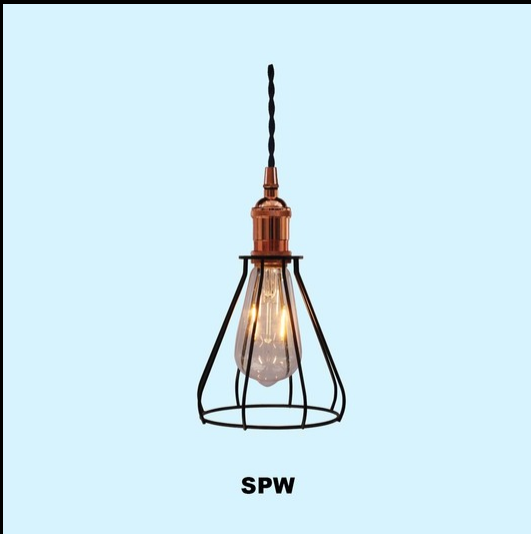

SPO socket pendants are available in several metallic finishes, with or without a switch key. SPC models can be finished in any standard powder coat finish or custom powder coat finishes. Choose the SPB model for the most economic choice.

SPW socket pendants are available with a metallic finish. SPA, SPF & SPM socket pendants are available with a powder coat finish. All cages are powder coated.

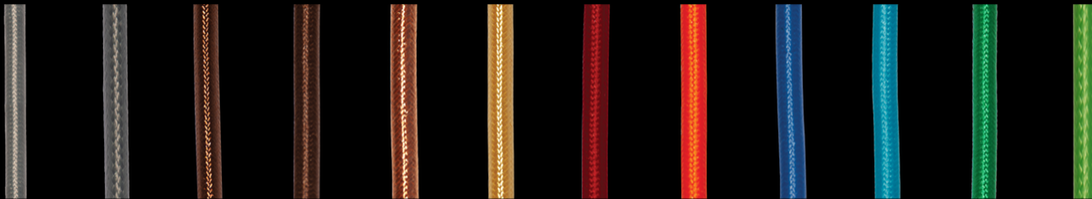

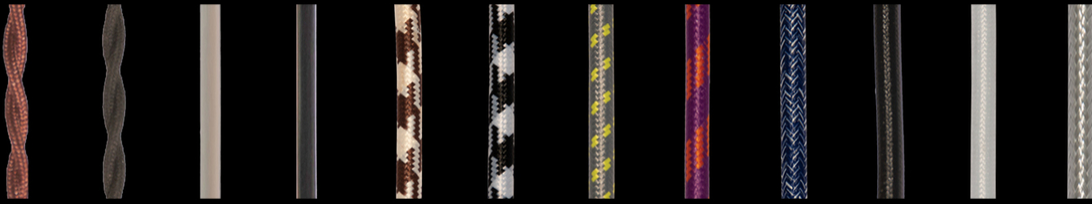

Consult our inside sales team for custom cage designs.

Metallic finishes are Antique Brass, Black Polish, Polished Copper & Oil Rubbed Bronze.

Color Cords are available on most models.
