Fall semester finishing strong!

Dear Science Students,

Fall semester is winding down and it’s a pleasure to reflect on the many events and activities in the College of Science. Here’s what’s happening around the College of Science.

Go Tigers! Like you, I will be wearing orange on the 29th and hopefully on Jan. 7th! Time to focus on the future and all that you will accomplish. The Spring semester is just around the corner, with classes beginning on Jan. 9th. Check the student handbook for important dates.

Thank you for all of your hard work and dedication throughout the semester. You are soon to be alumni, and we encourage and challenge you to remain engaged – with your Clemson experience special. Please thank them and stay in touch!

Here are some upcoming events and activities in the College of Science.

- Spring semester classes begin on Jan. 9th
- Undergraduate Spring convocation starts at 2 p.m. in the Brooks Center
- Fall 2018 Doctoral Hooding ceremony starts at 3 p.m. in the Brooks Center
- Doctoral Hooding, Fall graduation on Dec. 19-20
- Clemson scientists measure all of the starlight ever produced by the observable universe
- Musical theater production inspires marine conservation awareness for Upstate locals
- As today’s student leaders, Clemson’s ODK members are forging the future
- Student leaders help recruit best and brightest
