Fall semester finishing strong!

Dear Science Students:

Fall semester is almost over, and I hope you're enjoying your classes and making great progress toward your goals.

Here are some upcoming events and activities in the College of Science.

- Here's what's happening around the College of Science.
  - Go Tigers!
  - Like you, I will be wearing orange on the 29th and hopefully on Jan. 7th!

Finally, for those of you graduating next week, take pride in all of your accomplishments. You've put in countless hours of time, talent and eventually your treasure. You are soon to be alumni, and we encourage and challenge you to remain engaged – with your Clemson experience special. Please thank them and stay in touch!

Please know that I represent all of the faculty and staff in the College of Science who have made Clements' hand and then mine. Here is my advice – ENJOY THE MOMENT! As you look at me, earned

Michigan team tours Clemson SCALE-UP classroom

Teachers and administrators from Rockford, Michigan, toured Clemson's SCALE-UP classroom in the Cooper Library on Friday, Dec. 7. The team traveled more than 800 miles to see firsthand how Clemson is reshaping instruction for its students in hopes of applying the active-learning model to its own SCALE-UP classroom.

and 46 master's degrees. In addition, 28 Ph.D. degrees will be awarded in the separate Doctoral Hooding ceremony. It is expected to award 87 bachelor's degrees, as well as current underrepresented freshmen in SCIENCE. If you see them in the halls, at recruiting events, or out and about on campus, feel free to thank them for a job well done in helping Clemson recruit and retain the best and brightest SCIENCE students.
