WWLA Luncheon

WIBA Women's Leadership Alliance Luncheon

Abby Hannaford, Cozy Leaf

From a hobby to a business:

I started Cozy Leaf tea in 2009 as a hobby out of my home with no plans of growing it into a successful business. Two and a half years ago, all of that changed after being approached by a Whole Foods Market representative who eagerly wanted to provide Cozy Leaf tea to their customers.

Join me in April as I share the story of my highs and lows, successes and failures, and future plans for the Cozy Leaf brand. I look forward to meeting all of you!

Congratulations to Burnell's Fine Jewelry & Design

Burnell's Fine Jewelry & Design was recently awarded two significant jewelry design awards. Nathan Regan won honorable mention in the $5,000 to $10,000 category, and Mark Reeves and Channing Taylor won together in the $2,001 to $5,000 category.

The competition is called the CASE awards – creativity, artistry, style and excellence in jewelry design. There are a total of five categories based on price. Only two awards are given in each category – 1st place and honorable mention. The contest is sponsored by Jewelers of America and is a nationwide contest held in New York.

To be recognized with a CASE Award, Jewelers of America members must express their individuality and draft through the design and manufacture of one-of-kind jewelry pieces. The jewelry is judged by a panel of industry experts on overall design, marketability, wearability and quality of manufacture.
