In Case You Missed It

Help Support Small & Diverse Businesses

To help you locate small business suppliers, the University of California has partnered with Concur and implemented a Small Business First Program. Purchasing from a small business first not only supports local businesses but also reduces our environmental impact. Visit Concur.ucsd.edu/Oppportunity to learn more and begin doing business with small and diverse suppliers.

Think Surplus first!

For your upcoming projects, think about purchasing from a surplus or rental inventory before ordering new goods. It's a cost-effective way to support sustainability and reduces demand. To shop online or for more information about UC San Diego’s Surplus, visit the Logistics 2.0 Carbon Neutral Last-Mile initiative.

With the continued environmental crisis, UC San Diego has been committed to implementing a zero-emissions fleet as a part of our sustainability initiatives. The University is leading the effort by focusing on sustainable transportation options. The Logistics 2.0 Carbon Neutral Last-Mile initiative is one such effort.

Back to Business Travel Tips from Balboa Travel

Here are a few tips to help UC San Diego travelers navigate the car rental shortage in the area. Car rental shortages are not exaggerated and rates have gone up by 30%. Waiting longer to book will result in higher costs and lower availability. We recommend booking at least 2-3 months in advance to avoid higher costs and being undercut.

The industry has generally slowed car production. With travel picking up again, car shortages and limited inventory are expected to continue. Additionally, for travelers departing on extended trips, serious price increases may be possible.

Membership could mean the difference between having a car and not. If possible, consider purchasing membership to the preferred rental company. Waiting longer to book will result in higher costs and lower availability. We recommend booking at least 2-3 months in advance to avoid higher costs and being undercut.
